Yoga is a system of physical, mental and spiritual development, the benefits of which are now recognised by millions worldwide. The word yoga means to unite or to join, it harmonises and integrates all levels of our multi-dimensional being, to enable us to realise our deepest potential and wholeness; health in the deepest sense of the word. Yoga is the oldest system of self-development in the world and is the birthright of each and every one of us.

Learn Yoga and evolve yourself; teach Yoga and evolve Society

(Swami Satyananda Saraswati)

The Yoga Therapy & Training Centre (YTTC) was established in 1996 to meet the increasing demand for professional yoga training, and is now Ireland's largest yoga organisation offering all levels of training in a user friendly and professional manner. In the short time since its establishment, demand for training courses has increased and are now available in many major cities throughout Ireland.

The YTTC is a Yoga Alliance Registered School and a member of both the International Yoga Federation and the British Council for Yoga Therapy. The Level Two Diploma Course 'dovetails' into the ending of the Level One Course and expands topics already introduced. It is for already qualified teachers who want to further explore the ancient art of yoga and in particular asana, pranayama, mudra and bandhas

THE AIM OF THE LEVEL TWO DIPLOMA COURSE IS:

- Providing the basis for deepening and understanding the ancient art of yoga

OBJECTIVES

- To deepen the understanding of the principal paths of yoga
- To develop a sense of creativity, mindfulness and exploration in asana practice
- To deepen the understanding of the chakra system, bandhas and mudras
- To develop an understanding of a variety of yogic meditations, including mantra
- To deepen the knowledge of anatomy and physiology

QUALIFICATION

The Level Two Diploma will be open to those who have at least 3 years' experience of practising yoga and who have a valid Teacher's Diploma.

DURATION

The course will be delivered on a part-time basis, 1 day per month (5 hours per day) within one year.

FEE

The cost of the Diploma Course is £950.00

Payable: £200 deposit on booking, followed by 3 instalments of £250 each over the duration of the course. A discount of £55 will apply if the course is paid in full on the first training day.

COURSE TUTORS

Majella McIntyre

Majella is a YTTC trained Yoga Teacher, Trainer and Therapist. In 2004 she studied different aspects of yoga in its country of origin, India. On her return she embarked on the YTTC Post Graduate Course; more recently completing a tutor certificate course under the direction of Marie Quail. Her tutors include: Philip Xerri, Shiv Sharma, Elizabeth Connelly and Christophe Mouze. She holds certificates in Yoga for Pregnancy and Yoga for Children.

In 2004 Majella opened the first (and only) fully equipped designated Yoga Studio in the North West offering all levels of yoga training including general yoga classes on a weekly basis.

Registered with the British Council for Yoga Therapy (BCYT) London and the Yoga Alliance International, the courses are fully accredited. As director of studies she will have responsibility for ensuring the safe and effective delivery of the course.

Madeline Callaghan

Madeline has been practicing Yoga and Meditation for nearly thirty years. She studied for her Level One certificate with Marie Quail and also has certificates in Counselling Skills, Conflict Resolution & Mediation Skills. A graduate of the University of Ulster, Madeline has many qualifications including an Honours in Psychology. She has completed a Raja Yoga Course in Africa and has lived in a Ghandi Ashram in Bali where Bhakti yoga was the order of the day.

She attended retreat houses within Ireland where prayer meditation and introspection are an integral part of their daily life. Madeline takes responsibility for the Philosophy and Pranayama modules on the L'Derry courses.

Paddy Hamill

Currently director of YTTC Lisburn Paddy began his yoga training in 1994 and following several years of practice he embarked on an Iyengar teacher training programme which he successfully completed in 1998. His teaching is characterized by an awareness of correct anatomical alignment - ensuring the student moves safely both into and out of asana while cultivating an appreciation of individual / personal limitations. In 2002 he trained as a YTTC tutor. He has played an integral part in the growth and development of the YTTC throughout Ireland, having contributed to both the Level One and Two courses the length and breadth of the country. As course director he is responsible for the effective delivery of the course and in that capacity he will contribute significantly to many of the modules.

Clare Desmond

A graduate from the Acupuncture Foundation affiliated to the Nanjing University of Traditional Chinese Medicine China, Clare is also a registered licensed Chinese Acupuncturist practising in L'Derry. She is a member of the Northern Ireland Association of Traditional Chinese Medicine. This course provided a strong foundation in both Western Medical Sciences, Anatomy, Physiology, Diseases and Traditional Chinese Medicine. Clare has been practising yoga for several years and holds a YTTC teaching certificate. She delivers both the Anatomy and Physiology Modules on the L'Derry teacher training course.

A Level Two Diploma is awarded on successful completion of the course.

The YTTC prides itself in providing a relaxed and supportive environment, our tutors are approachable and available at all times to give advice and support. We hope you will make many new friends on the course as feedback from former students tells us that it has been a valuable and life-changing experience.

Applications

All applicants must be members of the YTTC so please complete the membership section on the application form. Members will receive regular issues of 'Yoga for You', the members' newsletter. Each issue is packed with up to date information about courses and events at the centre, details of our ever-popular weekend workshops and news stories of graduates who extend their training by visits to the Ashrams or simply share experiences of how they have progressed since graduation.
